CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

NCTRC recognizes the right of participants and their families to have privacy over any information that may be personal or sensitive. In order to respect that right, we require all volunteers and staff to sign a non-disclosure agreement. Any persons violating these policies will be subject to penalties ranging from reprimand to alteration of responsibilities to termination and legal action.

Information considered to be confidential includes all medical, familial, social, referral, personal & financial concerns regarding a participant and/or his/her family. Such information is considered confidential regardless of how it is obtained, whether directly from the participant or family, NCTRC staff, volunteers or others in association with NCTRC, or inadvertently from other sources, such as but not limited to a chart, computer screen or overheard conversation.

Consent to disclose information to outside individuals or agencies, including photographs and videotapes, should be obtained in writing from the proper legal representative. Adults age 18 and over with development disabilities are presumed to be competent to give consent unless they have specifically been found incompetent in a court of law. In such a case, a substitute decision-maker would be assigned, and any consent must be obtained from that person.

I have read and understand the confidentiality policy as described and agree to observe its principles.
